HABERBERGER WELCOMES MEEHAN AS SAFETY DIRECTOR

St. Louis, Mo., July 6, 2010 . . . Haberberger, Inc., a full-service mechanical contracting company based in St. Louis, today announced that Timothy P. Meehan, of Waterloo, Ill., has joined the company as Safety Director.

Meehan brings more than 25 years of experience as a safety professional to Haberberger. Prior to joining the company, he served as Director of Safety and Risk Management at Charles E. Jarrell Contracting, where he was in charge of OSHA compliance, workers' compensation claims, field safety audits and safety training. As Safety Director at Haberberger, Meehan will be responsible for conducting safety training education programs, ensuring compliance with OSHA standards, performing safety inspections and audits, and advising management and field employees on safe work methods.

Meehan is a qualified OSHA 500 trainer and is certified as a Lead Renovator by the Environmental Protection Agency.

Haberberger, Inc. is a 62-year-old mechanical contracting company that offers complete HVAC installation, customized maintenance programs, process piping and piping fabrication, and refrigeration and energy management services to a variety of industrial and commercial customers.
